

MARTILLADO COLLECTION

Our Martillado wall sconces are an extension of our Árbol Collection from Bolivia. Crafted in La Chiquitania, the collection pays homage to tropical modernism while drawing from Bolivia's long standing woodworking tradition, dating back to the teachings of the Jesuit missionaries who settled in the region in the 17th century.

Formed from sustainably harvested and certified local tropical hardwoods, the face of each sconce is meticulously chiseled to create a pattern of striking undulations. The wood blocks are backed with brushed brass for textural contrast—enhancing the way the light casts from both the base and peak of the fixture.
