DESIGN FOR GENERATIONS

B. Bridges is a next generation textile house and evolving conversation between creatives Beth and Frances Lacefield. Defined by a love for the beauty revealed in explorations near and far, personal and shared, B. Bridges delights in and celebrates the magic in the details. We see inspiration in warp and weft, in cultures ancient and modern, in tree bark, stones, and seashells, in vintage furniture, art, and collectibles, even in sunlight moving across the room. The B. Bridges collection of handmade designs comes to life in luxe fabrics that are timeless, multidimensional, and enduring. Designs made to be the gorgeous, inviting textiles where moments, lives, and generations are forever woven together.

To us, details are the most gratifying part of the process - the diligent work that becomes the beautiful layers of people's lives. We strive to make enduring designs that become an essential, elevated layer in beloved spaces. Designs made to withstand the trials of everyday living, age gracefully, and become meaningful traditions and beloved gifts handed from one generation to the next.
